Speakers

Emanuel Pastreich
Director, The Asia
Institute
Associate
Professor, Kyung
Hee University

Emanuel Pastreich writes extensively on culture, technology, the environment and international relations with a focus on Northeast Asia. He serves as a professor at Kyung Hee University's College of International Studies and as the director of the Asia Institute in Seoul, Korea.

Pastreich majored in Chinese at Yale University (1987) and received an M.A. in comparative literature at the University of Tokyo (1992), where he did all coursework in Japanese. After receiving a Ph.D. at Harvard University (1997) he started teaching at the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign as a professor of Japanese literature. His research focused on the reception of Chinese vernacular narrative in Korea and Japan in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, a topic about which he has written two books.

Pastreich served as the director of the KORUS House (2005-2007), a policy think tank operated in the embassy of the Republic of Korea in Washington D.C. and as editor-in-chief of Dynamic Korea an on-line newspaper produced by the Korean foreign ministry. He founded The Asia Institute in 2007 while working as a consultant for Daejeon's Korea's IT cluster.

Umezawa Akima
Deputy Secretary-General
Trilateral
Cooperation
Secretariat (TCS)

Dr. Umezawa Akima started his term at Trilateral Cooperation Secretariat (TCS) as the Deputy Secretary-General in 2015. He joined the Japan Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) in 1991, and in 2009, he was appointed the Head of Chancery to the Embassy of Japan in Singapore. Upon returning to MOFA in 2011, he served as the Director of Fisheries Division and as the Cabinet Counsellor to the Ocean Policy Cabinet Secretariat and in 2013 he was an Advisor in the Representative of the Government of Japan to the International Court of Justice (ICJ).

Dr. Umezawa received a Master's Degree in International Relations from University of Leeds, England, and a Ph.D. Degree in Ocean Management from University of Tokyo. He was also a Visiting Professor of Gujarat National Law University's Public International Law in 2015-2016.
