

ECCK INFORMATION SESSION ON US PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

EVENT OUTLINE

The United States Presidential election was held on November 3. In light of the interconnectivity of world markets, the outcome of this election will have implications around the world. During this seminar, experts speakers will break down the outcome of the election and how such may affect Korea and the world. We are delighted to host two members of the National Assembly (NA member Youn Kun Young of the Democratic Party and NA member Kim Byung Wook of the People Power Party) as speakers and hear their views.
