

ECCK Live Webinar on the Severe Accidents Penalties Act

EVENT OUTLINE

On 8 January 2021, the Korean National Assembly passed the highly debated “Act on the Punishment of Businesses Responsible for Fatal Industrial Accidents”. Most significantly, the Act obliges companies and their executives to implement new health and safety measures and imposes harsher punishment for fatal industrial accidents, which may range from severe criminal fines to imprisonment. ECCK will organize a dedicated webinar during which expert speakers will explain the key aspects of the Act, to whom it applies and give practical tips on how to ensure due adherence with the new rules.
