

ECCK Live Webinar on Female Empowerment

EVENT OUTLINE

March 8 is designated as International Women's Day. During such day, individuals, organizations and countries around the world celebrate the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. It further marks a call to action for accelerating gender parity (gender equality being recognized as one of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals).

During this webinar leading individuals will address the importance of female empowerment, explain what is being done on an international stage and discuss about the contributions companies can make.
