

ECCK Tax Forum: Update on Recent Tax Law Amendments for 2022

EVENT OUTLINE

In July 2021 the Ministry of Economy & Finance announced the Korean government's latest tax reform proposals which if approved will generally take effect from 1 January 2022.

In this session PwC will provide an overview of the main proposals that will impact foreign invested corporations and individuals in Korea. The session will cover proposed changes to corporate and individual tax laws and transfer pricing.

Please join us at this Tax Forum to obtain an understanding of the key tax law changes that may impact you and your business next year.

EVENT DETAIL

Title: ECCK Tax Forum: Update on recent tax law amendments for 2022

Date: Tuesday, October 26, 2021

Time: 14:00 - 15:00

Venue: Online (*Link will be shared upon registration)

Admission fee: Complimentary

SPEAKER PROFILE

Robert Browell
Partner
PwC Korea

Robert is a Partner in PwC Korea's Global Tax Services team and has been advising foreign businesses on Korean taxation for over 9 years following a transfer from PwC UK where he advised on international tax for 10 years. Robert regularly helps multinational organisations understand the tax related issues with investing and doing business in Korea. He also regularly assists foreign groups complete Korean M&A transactions, tax due diligence and post deal restructuring exercises.

Joon Yang
Executive Director
PwC Korea

Joon Yang is an Executive Director in PwC Korea's Transfer Pricing Practice. With over 20 years of transfer pricing experience, Joon serves clients in a wide breath of industries and geographic regions. His experiences include APAs, dispute resolutions, global planning, and documentation studies. Joon is also actively involved with PwC Korea's customs practice. His customs experiences include risk assessments, multiregional customs planning and implementation, and customs audit defense. Joon spent 9 years at PwC's Los Angeles office before transferring to PwC Korea.