

AN AQUILA CAPITAL/TOPINFRA JV

Aquila Development Partners (ADP) is a Korean development platform that focuses on greenfield renewable energy projects in solar, wind and battery storage. Founded as a joint venture by TopInfra and Aquila Capital, ADP combines best in class Korean and international practices and aims to be recognised as a leader in Korea's energy transition. Sustainability is at the core of the ADP value system and is an integral part of its development strategy and processes, and construction and management of assets. With the support of its shareholders, ADP draws on extensive technical capability across the solar, wind and storage sectors, providing its team members numerous opportunities for continuous learning, career growth, and advancement. At launch, ADP had a project pipeline of ~1GW and is supported by a board and senior management with a combined 67 years of clean energy experience and over 1,900 MW of renewable energy transactions closed across Asia Pacific.

For our office in Seoul we are looking for an experienced

Legal Counsel South Korea (f/m/d)

Your responsibilities

- Provide legal counsel and support for ADP's project development of renewable energy projects in South Korea
- Provide support to both the business and technical teams involved in the development and execution of renewable energy projects (particularly solar PV and onshore wind)
- Advise on corporate governance matters and ensure compliance with legal and regulatory requirements
- Draft, review and negotiate all commercial contracts including development services agreements, EPC and related construction contracts, consultancy agreements, non-disclosure agreements and other project development documentation
- Provide corporate support to Aquila Development Partners including day-to-day operational matters and company secretarial matters
- Take responsibility for managing record keeping and internal databases and assist with contract management (organisation of (electronic) filing of contracts, obtaining signatures, etc.)
- Assist with the management of ongoing project development activities with local partners and service providers
- Effectively work with external counsel when necessary and appropriate, and liaise/cooperate with members of shareholder groups, including in-house counsel of ADP's shareholders Aquila Capital and

TopInfra Your qualifications

- A degree in law from a top-ranked, reputable international university
- Qualification to practice law in the Republic of Korea with 8-10+ years post-qualification experience (PQE); additional qualification in a foreign law jurisdiction is an advantage
- Training and experience working in an internationally recognised law firm and industry experience in legal practice preferably working as an in-house counsel at a recognised multi-national corporation
- Highest standards of professional ethics, integrity and judgment
- Excellent communication (written and verbal) and interpersonal skills, with cross-cultural experience
- Excellent teamwork skills and ability to partner with business and technical colleagues, external counsel and staff
- Proven ability to collaborate cross-functionally and to engage effectively with all levels of staff and management
- Ability to build trust and lead complex and demanding projects
- Ability to work independently as well as in a team
- Highly organised, detail oriented, efficient, resourceful with strong follow-through and passion to "make things happen"
- Entrepreneurial with a desire to learn the business and function as part of a collaborative and interdisciplinary team
- Fluency in both Korean and English (verbal and written).

Your prospects

We are a future-oriented company that combines focus, far-sightedness, ambition and independent entrepreneurial responsibility with team spirit and an outstanding corporate climate to create synergies. Combined with our employees' talents, these synergies are the key to the success of our company.