Management & ESG
Dentons Hong Kong LLP
Hong Kong

Vivien Teu is a partner and head of Asset Management & ESG at Dentons Hong Kong. Vivien is a key member of the Dentons Global ESG Steering Committee and active in leading efforts on sustainable finance. In her role, Vivien is working alongside colleagues with multi-regional and multi-sectoral knowledge and expertise within Dentons, in advising financial institutions as well as corporate clients on legal, regulatory and compliance matters over a range of ESG issues and in meeting challenges and opportunities in the transition to a low-carbon economy across key sectors and regions. Dentons is the first global law firm with a purpose statement, renewed for sustainability and purpose-driven impact on our people, clients and communities.

With more than 20 years' extensive corporate and commercial experience advising financial institutions and financial services sectors, including numerous strategic joint ventures, mergers & acquisitions, Vivien has acted for some of the largest global and regional financial institutions and asset managers on legal and regulatory matters for cross-border financial markets access, investments and platform building, as well as extensive experience advising investors and other market participants. Having deep and broad focus in the areas of asset management, Vivien is a member of the Dentons Global Funds Leadership Group. Vivien has advised on the structuring and formation of diverse forms of investment funds across asset classes and structures, retail funds and privately placed funds, investments in public markets, private equity, real estate and alternative investments. Vivien's broader practice experience also includes structuring of various forms of finance or investment arrangements, trusts and tax matters, international tax issues, wealth management and private client matters, pre-IPO trust structures and employee incentive plans and share schemes, and also advising on establishing or structuring of charities, foundations, philanthropic giving or social enterprise.

Vivien was recently named Thought Leader of the Year, North Asia at the inaugural Thomson Reuters Asian Legal Business Women in Law Awards 2021, and received commendations by Asialaw profiles for three consecutive years (2018 to 2020) as a leading lawyer for the practice areas of investment funds and corporate M&A. She is listed by China Business Law Journal in the 2020 and 2021 A-List Elite 100 foreign lawyers for China practice. Throughout her career, Vivien has been involved in many pioneering transactions and projects. She has been highly rated for technical ability and innovation, while carrying in-depth international experience along with deep China knowledge.

Vivien is qualified as a solicitor in Hong Kong, Singapore, Malaysia and in England & Wales, and is bilingual in English and Chinese (Mandarin & Cantonese).

Andrew J. Park
Senior Managing Attorney
Dentons Lee
Korea

Andrew Park is a managing partner at Dentons Lee, and is an active member of Dentons global Corporate, ESG, and Intellectual Property & Technology committees. Having practiced law for more than 30 years in the US and Korea, Mr. Park is uniquely positioned to counsel clients on today's national and cross-border transactions. He blends his experience in the laws of both jurisdictions, his deep business networks, and his understanding of the nuances of doing business in the East and the West, to successfully guide clients and to close deals.

Mr. Park's practice is multi-disciplinary and includes particular focus on international commercial transactions such as acquisitions and joint ventures, as well as general corporate counseling, antitrust, anti-dumping, and labor and intellectual property on behalf of a range of clients including automobile manufacturers, cosmetics companies, fashion houses and electronics and chemicals companies.

Mr. Park served as Chair of the Intellectual Property Rights Committee of the American Chamber of Commerce. In this role, he advised officials from the US Department of State, the Office of the US Trade Representative, the US Embassy in Korea and other public officials and multi-national companies. Mr. Park is also an active panel member of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) and served on both the INTA's Internet Committee and the Domain Disputes Committee.
