Art Busan 2025: 108 Galleries from 17 Countries — A Platform for Navigating the Flow of Asian Contemporary Art

- ▶ The 14th edition of Art Busan returns as Korea's largest spring art fair, strengthening curated sections and international collaborations
- ▶ Leading galleries such as Kukje, Hyundai, Johyun, Arario, CANADA, MASSIMODECARLO, and KOTARO NUKAGA to participate
- ► FUTURE section for emerging galleries and artists, alongside the regionally focused ART ACCENT exhibition
- ► CONNECT special exhibition, led by Wonseok Koh (Line Cultural Foundation), featuring largescale and site-specific works
- ► CONVERSATIONS program, co-curated with key institutions like Tokyo Gendai, Garage Museum, and Supper Club, with 8 thematic sessions

(Art Busan = April 17, 2025) Art Busan 2025, Korea's largest art fair in the first half of the year, will be held from May 8 (Thu) to May 11 (Sun) at BEXCO, Busan. The fair opens with a VIP preview on May 8.

Now in its 14th year, Art Busan returns with a renewed focus on enhancing curatorial rigor across all sections and expanding international outreach. With 108 participating galleries from 17 countries, the fair continues to grow as a platform for global galleries to reach Korean and wider Asian collectors.

Alongside Korea's leading galleries—including Kukje Gallery, Gallery Hyundai, Arario Gallery, Johyun Gallery, Gana Art, and PKM Gallery—prominent international names such as CANADA (New York), MASSIMODECARLO (Milan/London/Hong Kong/Paris/Seoul), KOTARO NUKAGA (Tokyo), Tang Contemporary Art, Whitestone Gallery, and Esther Schipper will present their programs.

For KOTARO NUKAGA, this marks their first participation in a Korean art fair. Société (Berlin) will present a group exhibition featuring artists Kaspar Müller and Bunny Rogers. Esther Schipper returns to Art Busan after relocating its Seoul space to a new building in Hannam-dong.

Program Overview by Section

1. FUTURE & ART ACCENT: A Platform for Emerging Artists

19 emerging galleries, including CDA, CUT ART (Riga), WWNN, Shift Gallery (Moscow), and sangheeut, will take part in the FUTURE section, spotlighting young artists through solo and duo presentations.

Art Accent, Art Busan's signature program for regional discovery, will present a special exhibition in collaboration with Hongti Art Center, featuring seven artists from the Busan–Ulsan–Gyeongnam region. One selected artist will be offered a solo booth at Art Busan 2026.

The newly established FUTURE ART AWARD, sponsored by the fair's lead partner Hana Financial Group, will grant KRW 10 million to one artist from the FUTURE section.

2. CONNECT: Expanding the Physical Boundaries of Art

This year's CONNECT program comprises 11 curated presentations under the theme "Territory and Boundaries," led by Wonseok Koh, Director of Line Cultural Foundation.

The thematic exhibition "Fragmented World, Living Entities" questions the territorial nature of the art fair booth. Featured artists include Alexander Ugay, Hou I-Ting, Kim Sang-don, Kwon Doyeon, Park Ki-won, and Kim Oksun. The exhibition is presented in collaboration with institutions such as Suwon Museum of Art, Sharjah Biennial, NIKA Project Space, and TKG+.

At DOMOHEON, a historical site in Namcheon-dong, Busan, sculptor Chung Hyun's monumental outdoor work The Standing Man will be on display, activating the site's material and historical context.

Galleries such as Johyun Gallery, IAH, PKM Gallery, Gallery MAC, PS CENTER, Gallery M9, ROY GALLERY, LINA Gallery, MASSIMODECARLO, and Tang Contemporary Art will present additional solo projects in the CONNECT section.

3. CONVERSATIONS: Navigating the Currents of Contemporary Art Discourse

Art Busan's annual public program CONVERSATIONS returns in 2025 with eight sessions, organized in collaboration with leading Asian art institutions including Tokyo Gendai, Garage Museum, and Supper Club. The program brings together curators, artists, collectors, and gallery directors to engage in timely and critical dialogues.

This year's discussions address key topics in contemporary art such as the relationship between art and institutions, identity and place, materiality in sculpture and painting, and cross-platform collaboration. The full session schedule is available on the Art Busan website.

Connecting Local and Digital Art Platforms

Under this year's slogan, More with Art, Art Busan highlights connections between art, local communities, and the city itself. From May 5 to 18, Busan Art Week—sponsored by BNK Busan Bank—will offer a citywide program including exhibitions at regional institutions, artist studio visits, public sculpture, and the Art Bus experience for the public.

In collaboration with digital partner ARTROUND, Art Busan will also enhance mobile-based services for visitors. Through the digital ticket, attendees can conveniently access viewing routes, gallery information, local dining, and exhibition recommendations—offering a seamlessly integrated art-and-city experience.

Tickets for Art Busan 2025 are priced at KRW 40,000 (1-day), KRW 60,000 (3-day), and KRW 150,000 (VIP preview). Early bird discounts of 10% are available via Naver and 29CM platforms.

1. Participating Gallery Highlights

Art Busan 2025 raises expectations by enhancing the selection criteria and curatorial structure of each gallery section—MAIN, FUTURE, and CONNECT—strengthening overall exhibition standards across the fair.

The MAIN section will feature 89 galleries, including Korea's leading spaces such as Kukje Gallery, Arario Gallery, Gallery Hyundai, Gana Art, Leeahn Gallery, Johyun Gallery, and PKM Gallery. It will also welcome internationally renowned galleries like Tang Contemporary Art, Whitestone Gallery, and Esther Schipper, as well as first-time participants such as CANADA (New York), MASSIMODECARLO (Milan, London, Hong Kong, Paris, Seoul), and KOTARO NUKAGA (Tokyo).

The participation of these top-tier international galleries underscores Busan's rising influence in the Asian art market and signals a strategic move by global galleries to deepen engagement with Korean collectors. KOTARO NUKAGA, based in Tokyo, will make its debut at a Korean art fair through Art Busan 2025—further strengthening cross-cultural exchange within the East Asian art ecosystem.

Esther Schipper, returning to Art Busan for the first time since relocating to a new Hannam-dong space in Seoul, joins other major players such as Gallery Hyundai—celebrating its 55-year legacy—and Arario Gallery, a key force in shaping contemporary art discourse across Asia. Their return affirms Art Busan's position as a platform that reflects the evolving landscape of the global and Asian art markets.

Art Busan continues to serve as a critical bridge between domestic and global markets, linking galleries and artworks from around the world with Asian collectors. Kukje Gallery, presenting the fair's largest booth this year, will showcase works by 20 artists including Dansaekhwa masters Park Seo-bo and Ha Chong-hyun, as well as Yeondoo Jung, who will concurrently hold a solo exhibition at the gallery's Busan branch.

PKM Gallery, known for its cutting-edge presentations, will unveil new works by pop artist SAMBYPEN, who joined the gallery earlier this year. Leeahn Gallery will present a "Collector's House"-themed booth centered on works by Anna Park, a 2023 "Young Artist 23" honoree, whose dynamic charcoal-based paintings will be shown for the first time to Korean audiences.

Jason Haam will bring together an intergenerational, international lineup including Urs Fischer, Sarah Lucas, Linn Meyers, Mokha Lee, and Jungwook Kim. Berlin-based Société, which garnered attention last year with its Lu Yang media booth, returns with a new group presentation featuring Kaspar Müller and Bunny Rogers—further heightening anticipation.

The FUTURE section, dedicated to emerging galleries established within the past four years, features solo and two-person presentations by rising talents. This year's lineup includes 19 galleries: CDA, CUT ART (Riga), dive.seoul, GalleryHAS, Gallery HESED, Gallery HOHO, IAH, Ingahee Gallery, ISEURRAT ARTROOM, LINA Gallery, NAMUSO GALLERY (The Hague), NANO Gallery, oaoa, PAGEROOM8, PEYTO Gallery, sangheeut, Shift Gallery (Moscow), WWNN, and YK Presents.

WWNN, known for its distinctive curatorial vision, will preview works by Jaehong Ahn (based in Germany) and Jeffrey Chong Wang, ahead of their upcoming duo show in November. Participating for the first time at Art Busan, sangheeut will present the Korean art fair debut of Michael Rikio Ming Hee Ho, whose use of three-dimensional canvases challenges the physical boundaries of painting. IAH will also expand its presence beyond the FUTURE section by showcasing a large-scale new work by artist Yongju Kwon in CONNECT. The project explores the boundary between labor and art, reality and fantasy, creation and production—posing critical questions about artistic survival and the role of art itself.

As the global art market continues to grow, Art Busan welcomes 29 first-time exhibitors this year. From Korea, 15 new galleries—including fast-rising names like WWNN, Soft Corner, and PG Gallery—join the fair. International newcomers include the previously mentioned MASSIMODECARLO, CANADA, and KOTARO NUKAGA, alongside Gaetano Pesce Studio (New York), Galerie Quynh Contemporary Art (Ho Chi Minh City), and C Square Gallery (Taichung).

Founded in 2012 to foster cultural infrastructure in Busan and the Gyeongsang region, Art Busan has evolved into a fair rooted in local identity. In line with its mission, this year's edition will feature 24 galleries based in Busan and the broader Yeongnam region—including Johyun Gallery, Leeahn Gallery, Gallery MAC, and OKNP—accounting for approximately 22% of all participants.

2. Special Exhibition Program: CONNECT Section

CONNECT, Art Busan's signature curatorial program, transcends the physical limitations of traditional art fair booths by showcasing large-scale sculptures, interactive works, performances, site-specific installations, and media art. Open to all participating galleries, the program provides selected exhibitors with complimentary exhibition space, enabling artists and galleries to connect with audiences in more immersive ways.

This year's edition is curated by Wonseok Koh, Director of the Line Cultural Foundation, under the theme "Territory and Boundaries." Comprising 11 projects, the exhibition reconsiders the territorial framework symbolized by the art fair booth, reflecting Art Busan's vision to connect people across regions through the shared language of art.

The opening project, Fragmented World, Living Entities, interrogates the temporary and contentious nature of territorial divisions within the fair's physical layout. Featuring artists Alexander Ugay, Hou I-Ting, Sangdon Kim, Doyeon Gwon, Kiwon Park, and Oksun Kim, the exhibition explores contemporary landscapes shaped by tension and separation. The project is presented in collaboration with institutions including Line Cultural Foundation, Suwon Museum of Art, Sharjah Biennial, NIKA Project Space, and TKG+ Gallery.

At DOMOHEON, a cultural venue with historical ties to Busan's postwar identity, Art Busan presents its first outdoor sculpture project: The Standing Man by Chung Hyun. Created from repurposed railroad ties, scrap metal, and stone, the four-meter-tall sculpture embodies the artist's inquiry into temporality and materiality, while expanding the fair's spatial and conceptual boundaries.

Ten galleries—Johyun Gallery, IAH, PKM Gallery, Gallery MAC, PS CENTER, Gallery M9, ROY GALLERY, LINA Gallery, MASSIMODECARLO, and Tang Contemporary Art—will each present solo projects beyond their main booths. Highlights include PS CENTER's showcase of Soyo Lee, IAH's dedicated presentation of Yongju Kwon, Gallery MAC's large-scale hanging installation by Jeong-A Bang, and Tang Contemporary Art's Korean debut of paintings and ceramics by Studio Lenca.

3. Key Program: CONVERSATIONS

A Platform for Contemporary Art Discourse

CONVERSATIONS is Art Busan's annual discourse program, offering multifaceted perspectives on pressing issues within the contemporary art world.

In 2025, the program will feature eight sessions in collaboration with leading Asian art institutions such as Tokyo Gendai, Garage Museum, and Supper Club. Participants include curators, journalists, gallery directors, collectors, and artists.

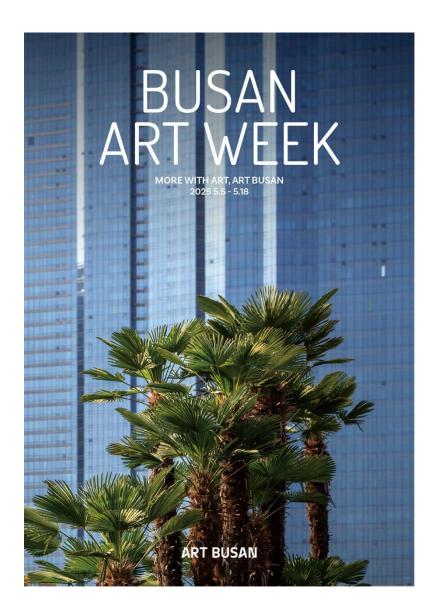

The first day opens with a conversation between architect Hyunjoon Yoo and artist Etsu Egami, exploring the interplay between exhibition spaces and artistic practice—how art responds to and expands within architectural environments. The session will be moderated by Gunhee Kim, Deputy Director of OAR Museum.

On the second day, Eri Takane (Director of Tokyo Gendai), Willem Molesworth (Founder of Supper Club), Seokho Jeong (Director of Art Busan), and collector Fabien Pacory will gather to discuss the evolving landscape of Asia's art ecosystems and inter-platform collaborations. Ekaterina Savchenko, Curator at Garage Museum, will examine the role of private institutions in Russia and their international partnerships, with particular attention to their engagement with Korean and Asian contemporary art.

The final day features sculptor Chung Hyun and curator Bobe Lee (Seoul Museum of Art) in a discussion centered around The Standing Man, his site-specific outdoor sculpture installed at DOMOHEON. Together, they will reflect on materiality, temporality, place, and artistic intent.

In addition to these, artist talks will be held with LY, Hong Soun, Kang Kanghoon, and Jo Jongseong, each offering unique perspectives and themes.

4. Busan Art Week: A Sensory Map Where Art Meets the City

Returning this year alongside Art Busan is Busan Art Week 2025, a citywide initiative that transforms Busan into an immersive cultural landscape. Running from May 5 to 18, the two-week program overlaps with the fair and is supported by BNK Busan Bank.

Under the theme "A Sensory City of Art," this year's edition invites visitors to encounter the city's sea, topography, culture, and everyday spaces through art.

For the first time, the fair will feature a dedicated Busan Art Week booth, unveiling a limited-edition line of collaborative goods—T-shirts and tote bags—created with Busan-based artist Lee Miju to highlight the city's cultural identity through art.

At DOMOHEON, a historic cultural venue in Namcheon-dong, sculptor Chung Hyun will present an outdoor installation in harmony with the late architectural work of Kim Jung Yeop. The work will create a resonant moment where art, architecture, and nature converge within the city.

Additional exhibitions, performances, culinary experiences, and lifestyle content will unfold across key districts like Haeundae, Songjeong, Yeongdo, and Seomyeon, offering a multifaceted experience that connects audiences with the unique rhythms of the city.

A free mini guidebook curated around the three keywords—art and culture, dining, and rest—will be available at the Art Week booth inside BEXCO and at four Momos Coffee locations (Main Store, Marine City, DOMOHEON, and Roastery & Coffee Bar).

About Art Busan Ltd.

Since launching Art Show Busan in 2012 to foster the cultural infrastructure of the Busan and Gyeongnam region, Art Busan Ltd. has grown Art Busan into one of Korea's leading premium art fairs. Focusing on the unique local character of Busan—often referred to as "the Miami of Korea"—Art Busan is creating a new collector culture that combines art, luxury, and leisure during the city's vibrant month of May.

Every year, top galleries from Korea and abroad participate in the fair, which continues to break records in both attendance and sales. With a mission to connect all stakeholders in the art ecosystem and expand a more transparent art market, Art Busan Ltd. launched Define Seoul in 2023 and is now pursuing a wide range of initiatives, including joint projects with global art institutions, VIP membership programs, community-building efforts, and digital art platform development, solidifying its position as a global art platform.
