

Webinar Invitation

The Yellow Envelope Act Passed: What It Means for Korea's Labor Union Law

5:00 PM Thursday 18 September 2025 (KST) / Language: English

On 24 August 2025, Korea's National Assembly passed the long-debated "Yellow Envelope Act," a reform that could significantly impact the way companies manage labor relations. This webinar will break down what the Act actually is, why it matters for employers, and how Korea's distinctive labor union law compares to global standards—all explained in clear and practical terms for a business audience.

Click RSVP Link to REGISTER!

▶ Registration Link

All registered attendees will receive online access information one day prior to the event.

Speaker

Eunjee Kim

eunjee.kim@dentons.com

Senior Attorney, Head of Labor and Employment group
Admitted to the bar, Korea and California
Certified Labor Consultant, Korea

[Employment History]

- Labor and Employment Group, Bae, Kim & Lee
- Consultant, Bain & Company
- Legal Director, Kellogg Korea, Hong Kong & Taiwan
- Legal & Public Affairs Director, Pernod Ricard Korea
- Legal Team Leader, Lafarge Halla Cement